CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

Charles Entwisle is seriously ill at his home on Gibbon street.

Miss Cora Duffey who has been ill with influenza is able to be out again.

Mr. Ralph A. Steele, who has been ill with influenza is able to be out again.

Mrs. Nettie M. Haynes has sold to Mrs. M. Emma English a house and lot on the west side of Prince between Payne and West streets.

President Grey, of the Washington Virginia Railway Company has purchased $10,000 worth of Liberty Bonds for that company through Alexandria banks.

An auto truck which was being operated by a colored youth named Frank Williams, was overturned at the intersection of Wolfe and Royal streets this morning, and a white boy, Lawrence Entwisle, son of the late Amos I. Entwisle, who was standing on the foot board, was seriously injured. The truck in endeavoring to turn was upset. Several boys were in the machine at the time, but all escaped injury except young Entwisle.

NEWS OF THE DAY

Influenza took a toll of 88 lives in the District of Columbia in the 24 hour period ending yesterday evening at 9 o'clock. The large number of deaths the greatest reported since the outbreak of the epidemic seems to indicate that the disease is taking a firmer hold on the city each day, despite the heroic efforts of the local and national health authorities to check the spread of the epidemic in the national capital.

Yesterday 4,925 new cases of influenza were reported in New York, an increase of 700 over the previous twenty-four hour period, according to figures given out by Health Commissioner Copeland. The number of deaths was 322, an increase of 100. During the same period 479 new cases of pneumonia and 336 deaths from that disease were reported.

Shortly before the American troop transport America, formerly the German Trans-atlantic passenger steamship Amerika, was about to sail yesterday for Europe with soldiers and supplies the vessel foundered at her pier at Hoboken, N. J. In the early morning darkness, while the troops aboard were sleeping, the America settled with her keel in the mud, leaving only three of her eight decks, together with parts of her funnels above water. So far as is known there was no loss of life.

Archbishop Mundelein, of Chicago, warned the national Catholic war council in Chicago yesterday not to be lulled into inaction by the cry that peace is near. "It would be a dreadful thing if, because of our haste into peace now, any country should ever be forced to go through again the travail that has been suffered by Belgium, France and Serbia," he declared. But our destiny is in safe hands," he added. "First, those of God, and in a material way in the hands of President Wilson whom we implicitly trust."

There is good reason to believe that the German submarine warfare will reach a climax during the winter, according to the Rhenish Westphalia Gazette, which says that it will produce an economic crisis of unanticipated dimensions in entente countries.

BOND SALE GRATIFYING

If Every Citizen Does His Duty in Purchasing Bonds Alexandria Will Pass Its Goal Tomorrow.—The Allotment is $621,300.

The sale of Liberty bonds continues to increase in this city and several additional thousand dollars of bonds were sold by the different banks today.

Only three more days remain in which to purchase bonds as the campaign ends Saturday. Everyone should therefore, come forward at once and make their purchase. Persons not familiar with the terms and other details should go to any banking house in the city where they will be given the desired information.

Every citizen of Alexandria should have one or more of the Fourth Liberty Loan Bonds.

If everyone will do their duty Alexandria will "go over the top" tomorrow. It is to be hoped that the citizens who have held back thus far will come forward and make their purchase of the bonds. Scribers of the bonds will have their names posted on the bulletin in the store window of E. C. Allen and Company, King and Washington streets. Everyone should see that their name is on the honor roll—The allotment for this city is $621,300 and sales reported at noon today are slightly in excess of $500,000.

Letters were sent out today by the local Liberty Loan committee to the wealthy citizens of Alexandria asking them to double their subscriptions to the amount of bonds they have already subscribed for. It is believed that most of them will do so.

All persons who have signed pledge cards for the purchase of bonds are requested to at once go to the banks in which they were given and make the first payment, otherwise they will not be considered as subscribers and their name will not appear on the honor roll and Alexandria, of course, will not get credit for such subscriptions.

NEW YORK BANKS SET FINE EXAMPLE FOR SALE OF BOND

We respectfully invite your attention to the splendid example set forth in the following telegram from the Governor of the New York Bank:

George J. Seay,

Richmond, Va.

At a recent meeting of Central Liberty Loan Committee it was resolved that committee pursue same policy as heretofore in making recommendations to banks of district as to rate of interests on loans in connection with subscriptions Fourth Liberty Loan. Rate of interest on such loans for period of ninety days will be four one quarter per cent. These loans will not interfere with a borrower's regular line of credit. These recommendations will be expressed by public advertising in New York dailies stating that we urge every bank in the United States to take similar action.

Benj. Strong, Goveror.

The Federal Reserve Bank of Richmond has made a Fourth Liberty Loan Discount rate of 4 per cent on the paper of Fourth Liberty Bond buyer running up to 90 days offered by member banks, in cases where the member banks have not charged more than the coupon rate 4 1-4 per cent to such buyers.

Respectfully,

George J. Seay, Governor.

WRECKERS ARE BUSY

Work of Razing Buildings For Site of Big Torpedo Assembling Plant Being Rushed—Ground to be Cleared in Thirty Days.

A force of fifty workmen is today engaged in razing buildings on the river front on which site the big torpedo assembling plant will be erected by the government at a cost of several million dollars.

The first structure being razed is the big warehouse formerly occupied by H. Kirk and Son and U. S. Lambert This is located at the northeast corner of Union and Fayette alley. Just as soon as this work is completed the other buildings to be razed are those located in Fayette alley extending westward from Union to Lee streets.

The contractors will then raze the big brick warehouse now occupied by H. K. Field and Company.

The work of moving from the occupied buildings is now in order and there are busy scenes about the river front as the work progresses.

It is believed that the work will take about a month.

After the ground is cleared and the wreckers complete their work a New York firm of contractors will begin the work of erecting the big plant which will give employment to the start to 2,000 skilled mechanics.

BRITISH FREIGHTER SUNK IN CRASH WITH U. S. SHIP

Former's Crew of Forty Men Landed by Revenue Cutter—Bow of Naval Vessel Damaged

New York, Oct. 16.—The British freight steamship Port Philip, outbound, was sunk in a collision with a United States war vessel off Swinburne Island, in the lower bay, this afternoon. The Port Philip's crew of forty survivors were landed by a revenue cutter. The bow of the Navy vessel, which collided with the freighter, was reported to have been damaged.

The Port Philip was a vessel of 4,060 gross tons, she sank in about 75 feet of water.

The vessel struck the freighter on The naval vessel struck the freighter on the port quarter as both ships were passing through Ambrose channel, outward bound. A great hole was stove in the Port Philip's side, and she went down in fifteen minutes.

With the exception of the engine room force, which stuck to their posts all the crew took to the boats. The engineers and firemen jumped overboard and were picked up by a patrol vessel. The seamen saved their mascot, a monkey.

The Port Philip carried a number of depth bombs, which fortunately, were not disturbed by the shock of the collision.

The freighter, which was under charter to the Cunard Line, carried a general cargo, including a large quantity of steel.

CARD OF THANKS.

We take this method of expressing our thanks to friends who manifested their sympathy by many acts of kindness upon the occasion of the death of Amos I. Entwisle. Such expressions of sincere friendship will ever remain green in our souls.

His Father, Brother and Sisters.

Three more days left to buy Liberty Bonds.

GENEROUS OFFER MADE

Rev. Dr. Green of Theological Seminary Willing to Close That Institution and Send Faculty and Students Here to Fight Epidemic.

Rev. Dr. Berryman Green, dean of the faculty of the Episcopal Theological Seminary, today offered to close that institution and send all of the students, members of the faculty and other attaches of that institution to Alexandria to aid in fighting the epidemic of influenza existing here.

This generous offer was conveyed to Mr. Robert S. Jones by Rev. Dr. Green on behalf of the Seminary. In the event it becomes necessary to call outside help to Alexandria this offer will no doubt be accepted by those engaged in the work of fighting the plague here For the present, however, it is believed that the force now engaged in the work will be able to cope with the situation. The Seminary always has been ready to help Alexandria in any emergency.

INFLUENZA INCREASING

Number of Additional Cases Reported Today—Disease Fluctuates— Death Rate Heavy.

A number of new cases of influenza were reported in different parts of the city today. During the past twenty-four hours no improvement has been noted in the situation. The death rate continues high and in fact the number of deaths during the past twenty four hours has considerably increased There is no actual way of ascertaining the exact number of cases in the city. However, It is generally known that the number is high. One day the disease appears on the decrease and the next just the opposite. These conditions also prevail in other cities.

Every physician is working overtime in makin gtheir rounds to houses where persons are ill with the disease and everything possible is being done by the women of the Red Cross and others to aid those who have no one to look after them, especiall the strangers in the city.

The disease is reported on the increase in Washington today according to reports from that city. In New York City it is increasing at an alarming rate.

LOAN PROCLAMATION

Gov. Davis Appeals to Virginians to Rally to the Support of the Government.

Governor Davis last night issued the following proclamation:

"Whereas, That victory which promises an enduring peace now appears within the grasp of our magnificent armies that are sweeping before them the foes of liberty; and

"Whereas, to us there comes at this epochal period the duty to sustain our men in the field and to give to them like the assurance of our whole-hearted support and the material aid without which no soldiers, however victorous, may discharge their military functions;

"Therefore, I, Westmoreland Davis, Governor of Virginia, do call upon the people of the Commonwealth to come to the support of the United States and their armies, and to purchase to the limit of their means the Liberty Bonds now being offered, thereby contributing all they can toward bringing this war to a successful and speedy conclusion.

"Given under my hand, and under the lesser seal of the Commonwealth at Richmond, the fifteenth day of October, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and eighteen, and in the one hundred and forty-third year of the Commonwealth.

"WESTMORELAND DAVIS, Governor."

GERMAN VANDALS PLAN DESTRUCTION

German newspapers, officially inspired, assert today that the devastations of territory from which their armies retreat is "military necessity," according to a cablegram to the French war mission this afternoon.

Vandalism of the retreating Germans is premeditated villainy and not the result of military necessity, French official cables replied.

"We know for certain that these deeds of vandalism, intended and premeditated, are in odious blackness," the French cabled added.

PEACE RIOTS IN BERLIN

Mobs March Through German Capital Crying "Down With the Kaiser."

Amsterdam, Oct. 16.—Peace riots have broken out in Berlin.

A mob marched through the streets shouting "Down with the war, the Kaiser, and Hindenburg!"

A pitched battle was fought between rioters and the police.

Statues of the Hohenzollerns were smashed and the residence of the burgomaster was stoned.

At the same time it was reported that serious mutinies had broken out in the German army in Limburg.

Upon a growing dissatisfaction in Germany over Kaiser-rule authorities here today based the view that the Hohenzollern power will soon crumble and that the Wilson peace terms will then be accepted.

Both openly and guardedly the Teuton press is voicing its dissatisfaction with things as they are in Teuton political life. The comment, expressing discontent with the Kaiser's autocratic power is now becoming so general that the all-powerful German censor apparently does not dare "kill" it

Authorities here believe that even the most "dumb" or even the most loyal of the Kaiser's subjects will begin to appreciate soon that the murder-master is the only person standing in the path to peace, and will realize that they are fighting a losing fight.

In sad but loving remembrance of our little baby, Harry Gorman Nalls, who left us Saturday, October 12, 1918

Just three days Oh, how we miss him.
Miss him more than tongue can tell,
But each day and hour that passes,
Brings us nearer to him dwell.

In our hearts we feel the sorrow,
Of the loss of one we loved,
But no one can heal this burden,
But the one who is above.

BRITISH SEIZE MENIN

10,000 Prisoners and 100 Guns Won in New Offensive in Belgium With Total Advance of 6 1-2 Miles.

London, Oct. 16.—Menin has been definitely captured by the British, who advanced a mile along their whole front of attack, according to the latest word from the Flanders front.

Menin is an important railway junction a little more than five miles slightly southwest of Courtrai, one of the immediate objectives in the new drive.

London, Oct. 16.—"Durazzo is in our possession," the war office announces.

The important Albanian port of Durazzo has been captured by an Italo-allied fleet. Strong forces were landed at the port and vast stores of material fel linto the victor's hands. The way to this feat was paved by the recent allied-American naval dash, in which the forts of the naval stronghold were rendered virtually impotent and a number of Austrian warships anchored in the harbor were sunk. American submarine chasers rendered invaluable service in that exploit.

Berlin, via London, Oct. 16.—"The enemy gained ground in Flanders," the war office announcement last night states.

Vienna. Oct. 16.—"Durazzo has been evacuated by us," says a war office announcement.

At the Flanders Front, Oct. 16.—Toward the end of the second day of the new Franco-Belgian-British smash in Flanders German resistance suddenly began to stiffen. The British have reached the railway junction north of Menin. In the Comines region the British have temporarily withdrawn from the bridgehead, where they had established themselves.

More than 10,000 prisoners and 100 guns already have been captured by the British, French and Belgians in their new Flanders offensive.

The drive was followed up early yesterday morning despite a heavy rainfall and the advance continued steadily everywhere along the wide attacking front.

At some points the advance already exceeds six and a half miles.

38 BOCHE PLANES DOWNED BY ALLIES

London, Oct. 16—Thirty hostile airplanes were destroyed, six driven down out of control, two downed from the ground and one balloon shot down in flames, Field Marshal Haig reported today in his communique on aviation activities.

British flyers also bombed the Prescaty aerodrome, damaging a Zeppelin shed and wrecking a hangar. Casualties among the mechanics were noted. The enemy did not fire on the attacking squadrons.

Thirty-three tons of bombs were dropped during the day and thirteen in night attacks. Eleven British planes were missing at the end of the day

FOOD HIDDEN ON TRAIN

The Hague, Oct. 16.—A German hospital train arriving over the line from Hasselt in Belgium to Maestricht was examined by Dutch customs authorities and found stocked full of food, shoes, boots, clothing, cognac, chocolate, flour and so on according to a Limberg correspondent. In the first car which the authorities found hidden in false tabletops and other places property to the value of $20000.

SHALL WE MEET AGAIN?

The following is one of the most brilliant paragraphs ever written by the lamented George D. Prentice:

"The fiat of death is inexorable. There is no appeal for relief from the great law which dooms us to dust. We flourish and fade as the leaves of the forest, and the flowers that bloom, wither and fade in a day have no frailer hold upon life than the mightiest monarch that ever shook the earth with his footsteps. Generations of men will appear and disappear as the grass and the multitude that throng the world today will disappear as footsteps on the shore. Men seldom think of the great event of death until the shadow falls across their own pathway, hiding from their eyes the faces of loved ones whose living smiles was the sunlight of their existence. Death is the antagonist of life, and the thought of the tomb is the skeleton of all feasts. We do not want to go through the dark valley, although the dark passage may lead to paradise; we do not want to go down into damp graves even with princes for bed-fellows. In the beautiful drama of Ion' the hope of immortality, so eloquently uttered by the death-devoted Greek, finds deep response in every thoughtful soul. When about to yield his life a sacrifice to fate, his Clemanthe asks if they should meet again, to which he responds: I have asked that dreadful question of the hills that look eternal—of the clear streams that flow forever—of stars among whose fields of azure my raised spirits have walked in glory, All are dumb. But, as I gaze upon they living face, I feel that there is something in love that mantles through its beauty that cannot wholly perish. We shall meet again, Clemanthe."

Death is still stalking in Alexandria, and the unwelcome visitor enters the castle and the cottage gate. As the poet says, we seldom think of the great destroyer until his shadow is cast over our own path. Since yesterday several of our people have succumbed to his fiat, while the lives of others are hanging as it were by slender threads. The Gazette has for over a third of a century on the last day of the year printed a list of deaths in our city during the preceding three hundred and sixty-five days. The list will be longer this year probably than ever before, hundreds who had no idea their names would appear in our "tombstone book" at the close of the year 1918 having already been enrolled.

The dreadful scourge which spread over Alexandria a few weeks ago, although supposed to be gradually losing its grip, still hangs heavily over us, and no one can tell who is booked for the voyage from this vale of tears during the present year.

Milton, the greatest of British poets, said: "Many are the shapes of Death, and many are the shapes that lead to his grim cave, all dismal; yet to the sense more terrible at the entrance than within."

ANOTHER WARNING.

A negro boy who operates an auto truck for a grocer caused the machine to upset this morning at Wolfe and Royal streets, and a little boy who was standing on the running board was caught under the machine and seriously injured. The darkey had several boys in the machine at the time, and while running east of Wolfe street caused it to attain a high rate of speed. In attempting to turn the truck it glided several yards on two wheels, finally overturning.

In this connection it may be stated that the negro operating the truck was fined ten dollars in the Police court recently for speeding, but this did not prove a sufficient lesson.

Most of the automobile accidents in Alexandria have been due to carelessness on the part of boys, white and colored, who are trusted with the operation of these modern vehicles. We realize that labor conditions are of such a nature that boys are being called upon to perform services previously rendered by men, but surely automobiles, trucks and motorcycles should be placed in the hands of careful and responsible persons.

South Royal street during the early morning hours is often the scene of reckless driving. It is no uncommon thing to see auto trucks and automobiles slide when being turned at intersections.

Of course the owners of the vehicles are responsible for damages which may result from the carelessness of their chauffeurs, but this fact affords but little modification to parents when their children are killed or permanently injured.

THE CASE OF THE KAISER

Referring to an earlier peace-feeler of Germany's Lloyd George, speaking in London some time ago, called it 'a dagger wrapped in the Sermon on the Mount."

In the words of an exchange, This splendid epigram fits the Maximilian proposal, and the dagger is still in the hand that is "extended only for an honorable peace." To get at the root of all evil, we must insist upon the prompt amputation of that hand, insisting upon the dethronement of the Kaiser as a preliminary to discussing the terms of peace with Germany?

The poor dupes of the Kaiser have yet to be educated. They must be taught—and that quickly—to speak for themselves. They themselves must pulsy the hand that holds "the dagger wrapped in the Sermon on the Mount," the hand that is still manipulating every wire calculated to anchor the Hohenzollern dynasty to the tottering throne. It was his hand which operated the puppet Maximilian and made its squeak "peace," and it is unquestionably his hand which moved the Fatherland Party to denounce that peace proposal, as the latest cable dispatches report they are doing. The devilish destroyer of the world's peace is still playing fast and loose, and he must be stopped.

If Deutschland, after all its sufferings, is still so stupidly submerged as to wish to keep its Kaiser, it is no concern of ours, perhaps, but it will be our concern to see that it keeps him gagged and impotent. It's little we need to care what goes on in Germany after a peace of our own dictation shall have made all right with the world outside the Teuton boundaries We only demand that Germany shall never again have a word to say, nor the chance to launch a devilish deed, to trouble the concord of the other nations

Our only assurance of this lies in the actual democratization of Germany. We will deal with the people, and not with their rulers. We may not ourselves unfang the Kaiser although we would heartily wish to, but the Kaiser's people must. They should not have peace otherwise, and it will not come to them until they have given guarantees to pay the last pfennig of debt for the devilish excesses of their war-lord.

THE TRUTH IN GERMANY

Germany's condition has been hopeless for many months, but every effort was made, and with considerable success to prevent the people from realizing the truth and not realizing it, they went on with the war, confident for a while, and then hopeful of the long promised and long-deferred victory.

But even the chauvinistic newspapers are now admitting the truth with little or no attempt to soften it. Germany is beaten, and the German papers, even of the fire-eating variety tell the German people the fact. A few weeks ago we quoted from a highly significant article in the Groessere Deutschland, one of the most active of the Pan-German organs. It was perfectly apparent, and must have been to its readers, that the paper knew Germany to be beaten and in a position where it must take peace on such terms as were offered. But it did not in express terms admit hopeless defeat

Much has happened since that article was published, and the German press is getting franker. The Rhenish Westphalian Zeitung has shown clearly enough recently that it had no hope of saving anything from the German wreck. Still more outspoken is the Kreuz Zeitung, Pan-German and chauvinist, which quite recently was cherishing dreams of Germany's brilliant future in the Orient. Otto Hoesch writes in that paper:

"Germany has lost the war. Our luck has turned. While the soil of the Fatherland hasn't been touched, the war decidedly has turned against us. A reorganization of the Balkans must be made without us. Our influence hereafter will be lost in Turkey because of Allenby's victorious campaign. This does not signify the end of Turkey, but it does signify the end of the German policy in Constantinople. and the end of the Berlin to Bagdad Railway which was one of the pillars in Germany's world policy."

Whatever the terms of the Allies are, they will be submitted to by the German people, whose imperialist and militarist papers admit that everything is lost. They cannot even qualify this by saying all is lost save honor, for honor was the very first thing Germany lost. A people that knows itself to be beaten will not haggle very long over conditions, because the conditions always grow worse as a settlement is deferred.—Philadelphia Record.

HINDENBURG'S OFFER

Armistice Sought by Field Marshal And Not by Chancellor.

It was Field Marshal von Hindenburg himself and not the supposedly pacifist premier, Prince Maximilian, who caused the German Government to accept President Wilson's peace terms and seek an armistice, according to advices which reached Washington yesterday through official sources by way of a neutral country.

According to this version, knowing the desperate condition of the German army himself better than any civilian, and especially the fact that there is now no supply of raw material to replenish the exhausted stocks of munitions of war, Von Hindenburg insisted upon the application for an armistice. Prince Maximilian is said to have resisted strongly, disclosing himself in the light of a true conservative and autocrat, only to be overruled by the majority of the war council at which were present the heads of the German states. This is pointed to as the explanatio nof why the German note in response to President Wilson's inquiries, was signed by Dr. Solf, the Minister for Foreign Affairs, although the prince had initiated the correspondence.

From the same source is cabled a prediction that the German defensive cannot be continued without a debacle for more than three months at the outside. This statement, from a well informed neutral source regarded as semi-official is based upon belief that a great revolution is impending in Germany, the majority of the people being determined to have peace at any price.

Wide and persistent efforts having their origin in Berlin have been made to get the churches of both neutral and belligerent countries to call a conference, which under another name practically would be a peace conference. While the movement received much support in Sweden, Holland and Switzerland, it has not met with favor in the Entente countries and America.

Dr. Charles S. MacFarland, General secretary of the federal council of church of Christ in America inquired into the matter on his recent trip to Europe and his report has been made public by the federal council. Dr. MacFarland said he he was quite sure there had been efforts originating in Germany to influence the church of both neutral and warring nations on the side of the conference

WILL SINK SUB-CRUISERS

Run Cruisers Seek as Prey U. S. Transports.

London, Oct. 16.—Desperate to find some justification for their U-boat ruthlessness in the form of "results," the German chiefs are now reported to be rushing out great submarine cruisers, capable of operating out in mid-ocean instead of in the "barred zones," where allied protective measures are strongest.

The object of the cruisers is, of course, to "get" some American transports. But the allied chiefs are not alarmed

Measures are already prepared to meet this reported new form of submarine warfare, and more plans are being worked out This is not the first time submarine cruisers have been reported, and the allied navies have not been asleep to the possibility

Some idea of what the allied operations against the U-boat have cost Germany is given by Archibald Hurd, who estimates that at least 200 submarines have been sunk.

FOCH TO DECIDE

Paris Against Armistice Which Would Suspend Progress.

Paris, Oct. 16.—Best informed opinion here persists that Germany is not approaching the armistice question in an attitude of sincerity, but is only seeking to avoid the consequences of defeat through allied magnanimity, upon which she evidently counts.

Consequently it is generally held in authoritative quarters that Germany should not be granted an armistice except upon the strictest terms compatible with allied military safety.

France is not willing for a suspension of hostilities, which would mean a suspension of the victorious allied progress, until Germany has acknowledged defeat. This she did not do in her reply to President Wilson.

Dr. Solf's assurance that the Reichstag is behind the armistice offer is no assurance as to for whom the German government is speaking, and President Wilson's new demand on this point is therefore regarded as hitting the nail squarely on the head.

This statement was made last night by a well-informed authority:

"We stand at the most dangerous and also the happiest moment of the war, because it is now definitely revealed that the enemy is defeated, but is striving through trickery to save what his armies are unable to save.

"The continuous allied offensive since July 18 leaves Germany like a strong man standing on one leg, desirous for a chance to rest—the chance which Foch refuses to give her.

"Unquestionably Germany is still strong, but Ludendorff's offensives spent themselves in ten days, and he did expect the allies to maintain theirs for three months without slackening.

"Any armistice which does not guarantee that peace will ensue, would permit the Germans to reorganize their forces and replenish their material."

Another authority said:

"Of what use is a gathering around the council table as long as Germany is still intact and menacing? However profusely the Germans may subscribe to the Wilsonian articles, the battle of the sword would accompany each debate."

MUSTDEAL WITH ALLENBY

Great Britain's Reply to Turkey Will Demand Full Surrender.

London Oct. 16.—Great Britain's reply to Turkey, the Evening News says it understands will be a demand for unconditional surrender. The Turks will be required to negotiate an armistice with Gen. Allenby, commander of the British forces in Palestine and Syria.

Paris, Oct. 16.—The political situation in Constantinople previous to the retirement of Enver Pasha and Talaat Pasha, as indicated in a dispatch from the Turkish capital to the Figaro was such that force was threatened unless the cabinet resigned and peace secured on any terms.

One hundred and fifty members of the Military Club, the dispatch reports, submitted the following program to the sultan:

"The closing of the Union and Progress Club, dissolution of the chamber of deputies, resignation of the entire cabinet and the formation of a liberal government, the concession of rights to the population, general demobilization and the signing of peace on any terms."

The authors of the manifesto demanded immediate satisfaction, in default of which the army and the people would employ force. The sultan at once communicated the demands to Talaat Pasha, the premier.

VIRGINIA NEWS

Rev. John Thomas Maxwell, died at his home in Staunton last week, aged eighty-one years. He suffered a slight stroke of paralysis about eighteen months ago, from which he never fully recovered. He was born in Baltimore. When a young man he volunteered for service in the confederate army and was for three years member of White's battalion. In 1864 he joined the Baltimore Conference of the Southern Methodist church and was appointed chaplain in his battalion, which he served as soldier and preacher till the close of the war. He continued in the active ministry of his church for thirty-years.

The Great North Mountain has been afire in the vicinity of Rock Enon Springs during the past few days and efforts to check the flames have met with little success, owing to the leaves and undergrowth being very dry. Residents of the mountain districts are fighting the fire to keep it away from their homes and farm buildings. Some damage has been done to timber and it is feared much more will result unless rain checks the fire, The whole country eastward for twenty-five miles is smoky, and a pall at times hung over Winchester.

Lieutenant R. F. Glover, of Belleview, Kans., was killed and Lieutenant Murray Espey, Morgansport, Ind., is said to have been fatally injured, in the fall of an airplane near Big Bethel, York county, Monday. Both were army flyers from Langley Field. Lieutenant Glover was piloting the machine and Lieutenant Espey accompanied him as an observer. The cause of the accident is not known. It was the first fatal flying accident at Langley Field, which was established more than a year ago.

The work of harvesting the commercial apple crop in Frederick county will probably be completed in most of the orchards this week. The crop is turning out much better than had been expected a month ago, and it will be close to 500,000 barrels. Seasonable weather has brought the fruit up to perfection in flavor, coloring and general quality. Growers are getting from $1 to $4.50 for York Imperials, $3.50 for Ben Davis, $5 to $5.75 for Stayman Winesaps, while vinegar and evaporator stock brings from 60 to 70 cents per 100 pounds.

Thomas Temple, treasurer of Prince George county committed suicide Sunday night at his home in City Point.

WHY SUFFER SO?

Why suffer from a bad back, from sharp, shooting twinges, headaches, dizziness and distressing urinary ills? Alexandria people recommend Doan's Kidney Pills. Could you ask for stronger proof of merit?

Mrs. L. C. Nalls, 540 South Patrick street, Alexandria, says: "I could hardly get about the house, my back felt so weak and sore. When I got down it was almost impossible for me to straighten up. I couldn't rest after I went to bed, my back ached so bad. I, and in the morning I could hardly dress myself. I felt weak and tired and my kidneys acted irregularly. My head ached, too. I got my first box of Doan's Kidney Pills at C. W. Summar's Drug Store and they did me so much good I got another box. After I had finished that, my back stopped aching and my kidneys haven't caused me any trouble since."

Price 60c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Nalls had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfgrs., Buffalo, N. Y.—Adv.

The American Spirit of Liberty and Freedom.

Every time you buy a Liberty Bond, you put a newer and higher courage in the hearts of all fighting boys but especially of those boys whose parents came here so that their sons might be free to fight for Liberty.

Every penny you lend our Government in your investment of Liberty Bonds is used to give us a better Army and Navy.

There isn't a soul living who owns bonds of the first, second or third Liberty Loans who isn't proud of what he has helped to do for our Country. Now it is the Fourth Liberty Loan-bigger than was ever known before, and backed by greater resources than any investment you ever made.

Don't wait for the final "spurt," don't wait for the fire of enthusiasm; don't wait for speeches and parades and bands.

Buy your Liberty Bonds this week, for you know you are going to buy them. You are not sacrificing a penny; you are not giving a cent. You are lending your money to the Government; you get good interest for it; you get your money back.

We cannot win without money, and therefore these loans are vital, and our people should rally in all their strength and subscribe---and--over-subscribe---the Fourth Liberty Loan. Subscribe to-day without fail.

The Alexandria National Bank has shown its faith in the Fourth Liberty Loan by subscribing for itself one hundred thousand dollars---$100,000---of the Fourth Liberty Loan Bonds. This is in addition to over sixty thousand dollars subscribed by its friends and patrons through the Alexandria National Bank to the Fourth Liberty Loan Bonds.

Make your arrangements with this Bank for purchasing your Bonds.

BACKBONE STILL UNBROKEN

Nearly 62,000 Cases of Spanish "Flu" Actually Reported in Virginia. Health Authorities Straining Every Nerve.

Alexandria, Va., October 16.—While there is no accurate way of estimating exactly the number of influenza cases in Virginia, those associated with the State Board of Health in its prodigious work of fighting the disease, are of the opinion that at least 250,000 people now are victims of the all-pervasive malady. A total of 61,580 cases had been reported up to Tuesday afternoon. The "flu" has spared no section, whether rural or urban, and has sent hundreds to their graves, though Tuesday's reports at least indicated that the disease apparently was not making more rapid headway than on the preceding Sunday and Monday. In some counties, too the authorities, by rapid organization, have been able to get the upper hand of the situation and now have improvised hospitals which in a measure are meeting the crying need for doctors and nurses.

Every possible medium has been utilized by the State Board of Health for the dissemination of its information relating to the care of the sick and the prevention of influenza's spread. Untold thousands of posters and bulletins have been sent to postmasters and to school authorities, while the local councils of defense also have proved valuable agencies for the distribution of literature. These councils and the school superintendents are now being asked to call to their assistance committees of citizens who will aid in "passing down the line" the warnings and the suggestions which can do so much to halt the pestilential visitor. In other words communities all over the State are being urged to have reprinted and widely circulated the bulletins, leaflets, placards and other publications which have been sent them in necessarily limited quantities from Richmond. Printers ink, in a crisis like the present, can do a world of good if the advice it conveys is even half followed. It should not be inferred, however, that the State Board of Health is contenting itself with mere printed words. Its members and their assistants have been working day and night to supply physicians and nurses for those ill-fated sections which have found themselves unable to give adequate care to their sick. Much has been accomplished in this direction, though thrice the number of doctors and nurses now in the field would not suffice to meet actual needs. It is hoped, however, that the instructions for the home care of the sick will be far towards helping the public out of its difficulties. And the sick themselves can greatly facilitate matters by going promptly to bed as soon as they sense the least sign of illness.

An order just issued by the State Board forbids the holding of any public auctions in Virginia, for these affairs, in counties and cities alike, attract large gatherings. And crowds, above all things, should be avoided just now.
